WELCOME AA MEMBER!

You are now registered.

We are so glad that you reached out for help to find a member of Alcoholics Anonymous who will take you to an A.A. meeting after you are released. In order to stay sober, it is very important to get to a meeting as soon as possible—hopefully within the first 48 hours.

Your A.A. contact will provide assistance in getting you to an A.A. meeting, but they will not be able to help you find housing, food, clothing, jobs, money, or other such services.

If you have provided a projected release date and the area where you will be living, we will start looking for an A.A. member who attends meetings in that area. They will write to you within a few weeks to make arrangements to take you to a meeting after you are released.

If you are released before then, please call or email us (see our contact info below).

NOTE: We cannot match you with an outside contact if you have not been sentenced, have less than 60 days left on your sentence, or do not know what city you will be living in. Please use the form on the right to update your information.

Sincerely,

Alcoholics Anonymous
